

Course Information – September 2011

Course Title Level 2 Certificate in Art, Design and Creative Studies

Level

2

Awarding Body

ABC AWARDS

What is the content of the course?

This course aims to introduce the skills and techniques of art and printmaking disciplines whilst exploring students' creative potential. It covers areas such as: Investigating Information and Developing Research Techniques, Developing and Handling Media and Materials, Recognising and Applying Visual Language and Formal Elements with Production Techniques, and Working to Set Briefs

How is the course assessed?

	%	Details:
End of course exams	<input type="checkbox"/>	No exam
Modular exams	<input type="checkbox"/>	No exams
Controlled Assessment	<input type="checkbox"/>	No controlled assessment
Portfolio	<input type="checkbox"/>	Internally assessed and externally moderated.

How is this course delivered?

Learning objectives and knowledge requirements are cross-checked with a list of activities and outcomes to be completed.

What are the entry requirements?

No specific requirements are necessary for entry to this course. However, preference will be given to students who wish to develop skills in the Art and Design and who wish to explore their creative potential.

What skills are useful for success on this course?

Creative thinking, observational drawing skills, independent learning, self-motivation.

What opportunities will success on this course give me?

Possible routes of progression could be courses such as: Level 3 Art and Design Awards, Level 3 Diploma in Foundation Studies (Art and Design). These could then lead to careers paths in areas such as: Art and Design, Digital Production, Media Publishing, Image Production, Print Production, Arts Enterprise or Fashion.