Dear Parent/Carer

RE: 'Playboy of the West Indies' at Birmingham Rep, Birmingham

We have been selected to take part in a project by the National Literacy Project. As part of the project, year 7 students will have the opportunity to watch a performance at the Rep Theatre in Birmingham, take part in a workshop by the Rep learning team, and work with a local poet. At the end of the project, students will have the opportunity to write their own poetry which will be published in an anthology. The project is free of charge.

The trip to the Rep will take place on Thursday 16th June, and students will watch the musical 'Playboy of the West Indies'. We will leave school by coach at 1:30pm and be back around 5:30pm. Students will have an early lunch on this day, and they will be required to wear full school uniform on this trip. The trip is free of charge.

Places on the visit are subject to the exemplary behaviour of your child as an ambassador of Bournville. Any breach in behaviour prior to the visit may result in your child being removed from the trip.

If any of your child's medical details have changed and you have not yet notified the school, please contact Mrs Jones to request a new medical consent form.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact the school on 0121 475 3881.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs J Dovey
Associate Assistant Principal
