

Autumn Term 1	In PSHE, students will learn about the different post 16 options available to them upon leaving Bournville School.	In careers education, students will focus on ambition and future pathways.
Year 11
Subject	Curriculum Focus	Homework and Weblinks
Art	Students will continue to generate ideas for their concluding piece as part of their 'Fantastic and Strange' portfolio project.	Homework set on Satchel One GCSE Art and Design - AQA - BBC Bitesize
Business GCSE	Students will study Unit 5: The purpose of marketing, its role within business and how it influences business activity	Business: AQA GCSE (senecalearning.com)
Computer Science	Students will learn about relational databases and understand the following database concepts: table, record, field, data type, primary key and foreign key.	Homework set on Satchel One
English	Students will study 'Macbeth' by William Shakespeare and explore how the characters and themes develop throughout the play. Click here for a copy of the play.	Revision website Seneca RSC Learning Zone
Food and Nutrition	Students will begin to research and start their NEA 1, the Food Investigation Assessment. They will also have a focus of Technological development in food.	Seneca
Geography	Students will prepare for and complete their Geography Field Study. Students will study world development and population.	Exam question practice and tasks linked to knowledge organisers.
Health and Social Care	Students will study Component 2: Health and Social Care Services and Values in preparation for the Pearson Set Assignment	Research and assessment preparation tasks will be set on Satchel One.
History	Pupils will study the second topic for their Wider World History paper, Germany, 1890-1945. They will revise People's Health for their Autumn mock.	Revision Guide
Maths	Each class will follow a bespoke scheme depending on weakness from the mock exams but most will be covering the number strand first then some shape and algebra.	Homework set on SPARX Maths weekly
Music	Students will explore different themes and practise composing music to a given brief to prepare them for their second assignment, due before Christmas.	Homework set on Satchel One BTEC Music Practice Soundtrap
RS	Core – Students will ask the big questions in philosophy such as "Why are we here? What is there after?" GCSE – Students will learn about the key beliefs of Christianity.	Further research of lesson content, and key knowledge recaps.
Science	Students will learn all about habitats and ecosystems as part of their ecology unit and the use of chemistry testing for substances and resources.	Homework set on Satchel One
Spanish	Students will learn how to talk about work experience, the importance of learning languages and their future plans in Spanish.	Sentence builders GCSE Bitesize: Jobs and work experience

Character Education	In form time and in lessons, the character trait students will focus on this half term is using their initiative .
---------------------	---