Dear Parents and Carers,

I am delighted to introduce myself as the new Vice Principal for Inclusion and SENDCo at Bournville All-Through School.

Having worked at Bournville for many years, I am incredibly proud to take on this role and to continue working alongside our pupils, families and staff to ensure that every pupil is known, included and empowered to succeed.

As Vice Principal for Inclusion and SENDCo, I will have strategic responsibility for inclusion across the school, alongside leading our Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) provision. My aim is to ensure that pupils with SEND receive the right support at the right time, enabling them to access learning, develop their independence, build positive relationships and feel that they truly belong.

I believe strongly that every teacher is a teacher of SEND and that inclusive practice is at the heart of excellent education. I will therefore be working closely with staff to strengthen our inclusive approaches, while also ensuring that we listen carefully to the experiences and views of our pupils and families.

Strong partnerships with parents and carers are an essential part of this. You know your child best, and I want to make sure that you have opportunities to share your experiences, ask questions and work with us to identify what will help your child thrive.

SEND Parent Drop-In

To provide an opportunity for parents and carers to meet me, ask questions and discuss any SEND-related matters, I am pleased to invite you to our first SEND Parent Drop-In:

Monday 5 October 2026

9.10am – 10.10am

This will be an informal opportunity to come along, meet me in my new role and share any questions, ideas or concerns you may have. There is no need to make an appointment. I look forward to meeting many of you and to developing a strong partnership between home and school. Together, we can ensure that every child and young person at Bournville has the opportunity to thrive, achieve and feel a strong sense of belonging.
